Final Reminder to Collect Unclaimed Dividends for 10 Years

In compliance with Qatar Central Bank's regulations, concerning uncollected dividends for more than 10 years, and in order to protect the interests our shareholders, we are pleased to announce that the list of shareholders, who have not collected their dividend payments for 10 years and more, is now available on the bank's website www.alrayan.com under "Investor Relations, Shareholders Tools-Unclaimed Dividend". The list is inclusive of Masraf Al Rayan's QPSC and al Khalij Commercial Bank's PQSC (before the merger) shareholders.

Qatari and resident shareholders (on the list), are kindly requested to visit any of Masraf al Rayan's branches to collect their dividends.

Non-resident shareholders (on the list), are kindly requested to send the list of requirements and documents for unclaimed dividends, available on the bank's website www.alrayan.com under the said list.

The shareholders whose name appear on the list, are kindly requested to collect their dividends, within six months from the date of releasing this reminder. The unclaimed dividends after that date, will be transferred to the General Authority for Minors Affairs in accordance with Qatar Central Bank's regulations concerning dividends that have remained uncollected for 10 years.

For easy, safe, and fast dividend payments, Masraf Al Rayan urges its shareholders to update their records with the Qatar Central Securities Depository (QCSD), Financial Square Building, C Ring Road, Doha, State of Qatar.
